Church

Historic Roman Catholic church in the village, which is the seventeenth. century. Especially interesting is the baroque high altar. Joachim and Saint Anne statue of him.
The excellent work of the rococo pulpit. 1760 from the base of the Rococo monument of St. John of Nepomuk statue. The millennium year, the occasion of the church Memorial oratory Batthyányi arranged in a village in the former parish priest, Doka Francis, who was from summer 2006 to summer 2009 Black Szabolcs Benedek, and since the summer of 2009, Dr. Stick Zoltan Father followed.

Millennium Fountain

The church's garden Batthyány diszkúttal established a memorial park, which is really a pleasant sight in the village center and recreational facilities. The unveiling of the National Cultural Heritage Ministry for the support of the memorial park in 2000, also found among the shrubs and evergreens for the conquest of 1848-49 and the freedom fighters of the 1956 monuments.

Castle

The former palace of the former Batthyány Nagycsákányban stood on Main Street at number four. The castle is part of the holders of the local nobility, and after 1433 were Héderváriak. II. King Louis was awarded the 1524 Francis Batthyány, then the mid-twentieth century, remained in the hands of its successors. Tower was added around 1610, 1646, Adam Batthyány shaped fortress, and Imre Batthyány expanded in 1728. In 1853 he transformed the romantic style, was built the polygon-shaped staircase. The U-shaped arches udvarú összhatású Baroque, but the romantic details prominently enough. Roof of the building in 1967 - was completely burnt out.

Then the building was used by the State Forest, including the restoration they have undertaken. The castle is now the Municipality of Metropolitan Home for Mentally Disabled, beautifully restored and maintained. Garden valuable to the species of tree. From there been a növényritkaságok Kamond, Sárvár Sopron University botanical garden and botanical garden. Garden in our village now called the castle garden, where in addition to the inhabitants of the settlement, visitors can walk, relax. The Várkertről some pictures shown on our website, as well as among the memorials are still writing about the area.

Nepokumi Statue

Presumably the second half of the nineteenth century, made / year could not be found on it /. Csákánydoroszlói covered by the same Roman Catholic church of the patron. St. John of Nepomuk was a priest who became a martyr of the confessional secret. The Czech King belefojtatta the Vltava river. Statue of roads, bridges, usually located next to, such as attending road, bridge crossings, a patron saint but the reputation, honor patron of Batthyány also was meant to protect. The statue's base has worn off, the bas-relief scene of the martyrdom of the holy represented. The statue in the main street of our village.

"Headless" Statue

It is likely that the tomb was Batthyány Dead, this refers to the stone-carved, covered with cloth hamvveder. The pedestal of four side panels - which are currently lacking - őrizhették the name of the deceased, who - with few exceptions - Németújvár / m Güssing / buried in the crypt of the Franciscan Church. There is a local tradition in which an aristocratic race in memory has been unfortunate. "Headless" perhaps named after the statue of the locals, because the top of the hamvveder (the tomb of "head") was missing for a long time, was lying next to knocking. / It is possible that the cup hamvvedret previously thought, which is a cloth covered up. /

Mary - Chapel

The base coat of arms is seen double Batthyányi and 1853, the year Batthyány Batthyány Agnes Zsigmond wife refers to his marriage. The chapel, including a small statue of the Virgin Mary holding Jesus in her arms a votive gifts have been made in the year of their marriage. Batthyány Zsigmond and his wife lived in the Holy Körmend Prince - a physician, Dr. Batthyány - Strattmann Laszlo maternal grandparents were. The chapel is also, as a "headless" sculpture park located in the village a few hundred yards from the castle Batthyány.

Milestone

The visible landmark in the village in the center of Railroad, - and Körmendi Street intersection. This milestone has been set up in 2000, and transfer to that location. Körmendi had previously street, the inscription on it read 10 million. A long time ago Savariából the Adriatic along the road leading to the measured distance. The Millennium year of leaving the label has added the following script: a milestone in her honor MILLENNIUM The column of the new year we make a national color ribbon.
